Building the Future One Life at a Time, sponsored by Emigrant Savings Bank, is a public/private alliance that joins celebrities, businesses and civic organizations in mobilizing community support for New York's youth where they learn and where they play. In collaboration with our program partners and beneficiaries, BTF provides mentoring, e-learning remediation, books, publications and supplemental materials, and family and cultural events to schools, Parks recreational centers and community-based programs for young people in Greater New York.

Communities in Schools NY is the local branch of the nation's largest stay-in-school program for youth. CIS NY provides supplemental resources to public and private schools and community organizations in the New York area in order to strengthen childrens' ability to learn, stay in school and prepare for life.

Mentoring USA is the largest school/community site-based program in New York City providing one-to-one mentoring to at risk youth. A national and international organization, Mentoring USA is also affiliated with HELP USA, the nation's largest provider of transitional housing and services for homeless families.

The City of New York/Parks and Recreation serves both educational and recreational needs of New York's youth through a vast array of programs offered in 36 Recreational Centers and 28,000 acres of parkland. Through its myriad programs, the Parks provides educational, artistic, and athletic activities and resources for youth in New York City.

Beboperella

Patti Austin, Grammy and Academy Award® Nominee, has generously contributed her time and her talents as a mentor and as an artist to Building the Future One Life at a Time. Tonight, in the spirit of BTF, Beboperella will feature Patti, special guests, and promising students from the Berklee School of Music who will perform this one-of-a-kind tribute to Bebop and Ella Fitzgerald.

The CD 101.9 Smooth Jazz Foundation, the official radio partner of BTF, raises funds for charities in the Tri-state area, focussing on children's and women's issues.
